

turned over, and then we wouldn't have this.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Excuse me?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, you said there was an updated determination...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: From DAS Accounting.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yeah. And if that had been turned over, who, by PERB?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes, yes, I think the actuary then would have...the initial report from the actuary would probably have been correct then.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. So this turning over that we're talking about doesn't require any expertise or even...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...understanding.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: No, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: It's just passing something from...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: What it would have required is just a comparison of one piece of paper with another and seeing that there were different numbers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, who didn't do that?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Arguably, the director of PERB.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is the director a volunteer?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Who hires or appoints this person?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: The PERB Board.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is that a state position? Is that person a
